

Running Commands In Sequence

To run two commands at the same time use the semi-colon ";"

```
command1 ; command2
```

To run a command only after the first command has failed use the double pipe "||"

```
command1 || command2
```

To run a command only if the first is successful use the double ampersand "&&"

```
command1 && command2
```