

Backup SaaS Provider

Crashplan has announced they will drop personal accounts Oct 23, 2018 and endorsing Carbonite. I'm on the lookout again for a new Backup provider.

My current backup is 919 GB. NAS is using 1.8 TB of 2.7 TB. Yes, there is lots of space I could trim.

Features comparison in order of importance,

Product Offering	Crashplan Home	Crashplan Business	Wasabi	Backblaze	Backblaze B2 Cloud	Carbonite
PKI based Private Key Encryption	256-bit AES	256-bit AES	256-bit AES	Yes		128-bit AES
Price per Computer	$59.99/year	$120/year	1TB $48/year	$50.00/year		$72/year
File Versions	Unlimited	Unlimited	Custom at cost of storage.	30 days		Past 90 days, PC only
Storage	Unlimited	Unlimited	1TB 48/year	Unlimited		Unlimited
Interfaces to Retrieve	Web	Web				Web, Android & iOS
OS Support	Linux Desktop, Windows, OS X	Linux Desktop, Windows, OS X	All using Duplicati	Mac, Windows		W7-10, OS X
Deal Breakers?						Music and Video requires a paid subscription and 4GB+ files require special selection. No Linux Support. they plan to acquire Mozy, Inc from Dell which support Linux.
Secure Login				2-Factor SMS and Authenticator Apps
Throttling of Bandwidth				Yes		